

We outsource to recognised competent contractors some specialist tasks such as the conservation of artefacts. But we also provide an in house recording service to ensure that artefacts are documented, drawn and photographed before conservation. We also provide comprehensive reports combining our own interpretation with reports provided by specialist sub-contractors.

